TIM MCGEE JOINS PPCA BOARD AS LICENSOR REPRESENTATIVE

PPCA is pleased to announce Tim McGee, Chief Executive Officer of Ministry Of Sound Australia Group, has joined the PPCA Board following the recent PPCA licensor election.

Since first entering the music industry in the mid-nineties, McGee has built up a wealth of industry knowledge and experience, in fields as varied as recordings, touring, live events, publishing, artist management, venue consultancy and content creation.

“I couldn’t be more thrilled to welcome Tim McGee to the PPCA board. Tim’s appointment is a testament to his broad experience and the immense respect he has from the Australian music industry” said George Ash, PPCA Board Chairman.

McGee will take his place on the Board alongside fellow Licensor Representative David Vodicka, after successfully contesting the biennial election for one of the two Licensor Representative positions on the Board.

“I express my thanks to all of the PPCA licensors who voted, not only for me, but for all candidates,” said McGee.

“PPCA has an increasingly vital role to play for Recording Companies and Artists as broadcast, public performance and online revenues become more and more important to the industry.”

Tim, a former DJ, is well known for his entrepreneurial skill and provides strategic management and leadership to Ministry Of Sound and its associated partners. The experience, network and knowledge gained through all these diverse areas of his life, has led the group to the success it enjoys today.

PPCA CEO Dan Rosen today also welcomed the newest edition to the board.

“I congratulate Tim on his election to the Board and I look forward to working with him to further progress the interests of recording artists in Australia.”

“I would also like to take this opportunity to thank outgoing Licensor Representative Colin Daniels for his invaluable contribution to the ongoing development of PPCA throughout the last two years.”
